REFLECTING THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS:

Jesus is transfigured on the mountain in the presence of Peter, James, and John.

For the second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus' retreat to the desert to his Transfiguration. Each year on the first Sunday of Lent, our Gospel tells the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert. On the second Sunday of Lent each year, we hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration. The story of Jesus' Transfiguration is told in the three Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In each of those Gospels, the Transfiguration follows Jesus' first prediction of his death and his teaching about the costs of discipleship. Jesus' Transfiguration is a promise of Jesus' glory, his Resurrection. On a mountain in today's reading, a voice affirms that Jesus is God's Son in words reminiscent of the voice at Jesus' baptism. In addition, the appearance of Moses and Elijah on the mountain connects this story with God's relationship to the people of Israel. Moses and Elijah represent the Law and the Prophets, respectively. Together with Jesus, they represent God's complete Word. The Transfiguration occurs in the presence of just three of Jesus' disciples: Peter, James, and John. In Matthew's Gospel, those disciples are among the first whom Jesus calls. The three men are identified as an "inner circle" among Jesus' disciples when Jesus asks them to accompany him to the Garden of Gethsemane just before his arrest.

First Reading

- Imagine that you're Abram.
 - What do you know about God?
 - How do you react to God?
 - How do you feel about what God promises?
 - How willing are you to leave?
 - How does your family react?
 - What do you think will happen?
- Imagine that you're Peter, James, or John.
 - What is it like on the mountain?
 - Why do you think Jesus takes you with him?
 - What are you and the other two disciples saying and/or doing?
 - How do you recognize Moses and Elijah?
 - How do you react when the two men appear?
 - Do you hear what Jesus talks about with Moses and Elijah?
 - Do you want Moses and Elijah to stay? Why/why not?
 - How would you describe the cloud?
 - What does the voice from the cloud sound like?
 - How well have you been listening to Jesus?
 - Why are you afraid?
 - How do you feel after Jesus helps you up?
 - Do you ever talk about what happened?

Gospel

- Have you ever sensed that God was leading you in a new direction?
- How willing are you to let God disrupt your life?
- How well are you listening to God's Son?
- How do you find strength to persevere in your Lenten practices?
