Hispanic Ministries Report....Rudy Gomez

A workshop is scheduled at a parish in Richmond on March 7, 2020. Cost is $35.00 per person. Attendees will be encouraged to become leaders for Hispanic Ministries. The regular monthly meeting of St. Peter's Hispanic Ministries is scheduled for Friday, February 7. Hispanic Ministries will participate in this years Lenten Fridays Meatless Soup meals and assignments will be made at Friday's meeting. Planning is underway for the Charismatic Anniversary which will be held on March 28 at a local school. The remaining Christmas lights have been removed. The Pentecost Feast and Quinceira date will be decided. Rudy also mentioned he had seen bumper stickers issued by a church across the bay which welcomed all to join their church.

Ben Gutierrez suggested Heads of Ministries should discuss future plans at the upcoming Heads of Ministries Assembly. Discussion as to how best to encourage all Ministry Heads to attend next week's meeting. Rudy Gomez will remind attendees at Friday's Hispanic Ministry meeting of importance of attending this mandatory meeting. Also a notice will be included in Sunday's bulletin. Presently there are 19 Hispanic Ministries and 13 Anglo in St. Peters.

Father Roger discussed the upcoming Heads of Ministries Assembly. The presentations should be a short summary by each committee head. This is the first such assembly since Father Roger arrived at St. Peters. The Agenda should be as follows:

1. Opening prayer
2. Welcome to all by Father Roger and Kathy Greene. Chairperson of Pastoral Council
3. Self Introduction of: 1. Members of the Pastoral Council , 2. Heads of Ministries
4. Individual Reports and concerns. (Translations provided)
5. Meeting open for future ideas and concerns for parish.
6. Final blessing by Father Roger

Father Roger asked Joanne Boyko to provide light refreshments.
